FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a construction company. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a cement mason. The director determined that the proffered position is not one requiring the services of a skilled worker.

On appeal, counsel submits a brief.

Section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(3), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable, at the time of petitioning for classification under this paragraph, of performing skilled or unskilled labor, not of a temporary or seasonal nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States.

8 C.F.R. 204.5(l)(3) states, in pertinent part:

> (ii) Other documentation -- (A) General. Any requirements of training or experience for skilled workers, professionals, or other workers must be supported by letters from trainers or employers giving the name, address, and title of the trainer or employer, and a description of the training received or the experience of the alien.
> (B) Skilled workers. If the petition is for a skilled worker, the petition must be accompanied by evidence that the alien meets the educational, training or experience, and any other requirements of the individual labor certification, meets the requirements for Schedule A designation, or meets the requirements for the Labor Market Information Pilot Program occupational designation. The minimum requirements for this classification are at least two years of training or experience.

The Application for Alien Employment Certification (Form ETA 750), indicated that there were no minimum educational, training or experience requirements for the job offered. The director denied the petition because the petitioner had not established that the position required the services of a skilled worker.

On appeal, counsel states:

> The petitioner clearly established that the Certifying Officer certified the Labor Application as a skilled position, one requiring two years of experience. The Service ignored this evidence and simply denied the application and now forces the petitioner to a lengthy appeal. This is particularly prejudicial under the instant circumstances because the beneficiary's spouse is in removal proceeding and requires an approval of the employment petition to adjust status in proceedings.

The determination of whether a worker is a skilled worker or other worker will be based on the requirements of training and/or experience placed on the job by the prospective employer, as certified by the Department of Labor. 8 C.F.R. 204.5(l)(4). Based on the above-cited regulations governing classification as a skilled worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act, the proffered position is not one which requires the services of a skilled worker.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
